

THE LEGAL METROLOGY ACT

Regulations made by the Minister under section 14 of the Legal Metrology Act .

1. These regulations may be cited as the Legal Metrology (Assize Fees) Regulations 2003.
2. In these regulations -

“multiple range weighing instrument” means a weighing instrument having 2 or more weighing ranges with different maximum capacities and different scale intervals for the same load receptor, each range extending from zero to its maximum capacity;

"Single range weighing instrument" means a weighing instrument having only one weighing range, which may be divided into partial weighing ranges with different scale intervals, with the partial weighing ranges determined automatically according to the load applied, both on increasing and decreasing loads.
3. (1) Subject to these regulations, there shall be charged, in respect of the verification of instrument, weights and measures for the purpose of assizing, the fees specified in the Schedule.

(2) Each range of a multiple range weighing instrument shall be construed as a weighing instrument for the purpose of verification and charging fee.
4. There shall be a surcharge of 5% for each extra month or part thereof following the last date on which payment of any claim with regards to assize fees should have been made.
5. (1) Subject to paragraph (3) where the verification is done at a place other than an assize station, the fee charged shall be increased by 50 per cent.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) where the verification of an instrument weight or measure is done -
 - (a) on request; and
 - (b) at a place other than an assize station, there shall, in addition, be charged a fee in respect of the travelling of the authorized officer and the transport of equipment as established by the Controller.

- (3) Paragraphs (1) and (2) shall not apply to the verification of –
- (a) a weighing instrument of capacity exceeding 5,000 kg;
 - (b) a petrol pump;
 - (c) a bulk flowmeter;
 - (d) a vehicle tank;
 - (e) a fixed storage tank of capacity exceeding 100,000 L.
6. There shall be charged in respect of an application for a certificate of suitability a fee of Rs 1,500 in respect of -
- (a) a single range weighing instrument ;
 - (b) a multiple range weighing instrument;
 - (c) an indicator of a weighing instrument, if application is made for the indicator only;
 - (d) a load cell of a weighing instrument, if application is made for load cell only.
7. The Legal Metrology (Assize fees) Regulations 1990 are revoked.
8. These regulations shall come into operation as from 1 August 2003.

Made by the Minister on Tuesday 8th July, 2003.
