

SIXTH SCHEDULE
(regulation 13)

THE CONSUMER PROTECTION (IMPORTATION AND SALE OF SECOND-HAND MOTOR VEHICLES) REGULATIONS 2004

PURCHASE ORDER AGREEMENT

1. Declaration and Agreement

Purchase Order Agreement made in duplicate this day of two thousand and

Between

M/s
.....

Whose business premises is situated at (hereinafter called the "authorised dealer") and

of

[hereinafter called the "Purchaser"]

Whereby

(a) the purchaser places an order with the authorised dealer for the importation of a second-hand motor vehicle with the following particulars -

(i) Type of vehicle :

(ii) Make :

(iii) Model :

(iv) Year :

(v) Colour :

(vi) Country of origin :

(vii) Country from which vehicle
is to be consigned :

(viii) *Options: air-conditioned, power steering, power mirrors, central locking, radio cassette, compact disc, alloy wheel, antilock brake system.

- (b) the agreed sale price isrupees as per quotation dated from the authorised dealer.
- (c) the purchaser effects a deposit, of rupees.
- (d) the authorised dealer undertakes to deliver the vehicle to the purchaser at its showroom on or before

2. Rights of the parties

It has been further agreed between the authorised dealer and the purchaser that -

- (a) the authorised dealer shall reimburse the purchaser the deposit effected under paragraph 1(c) together with interest at the bank rate, if the imported vehicle is not as per specifications at 1(a) or is not delivered within the time limit specified at 1(d);
- (b) if the purchaser refuses to purchase the vehicle after its importation, the authorised dealer may retain the deposit of Rupees..... (Rs) made by the purchaser under paragraph 1(c) and claim any reasonable additional expenses incurred by the authorised dealer to give effect to this purchase order agreement.

delete as appropriate

3. Other Conditions (at the option of the parties)

.....
.....
.....

.....
Signature of purchaser

Name:
Address:
.....
Tel. No.
Date:

.....
Signature of authorised dealer

Name:
Address:
.....
Tel. No.:
Date: